

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 16 January 1962

25X1

[redacted] [redacted] advised that per our arrangement he met with the four individuals referred to us by Mr. Mace Broide, in the office of Senator Vance Hartke. The meeting was held at 3:00 P.M. yesterday. [redacted] said that the group (particularly [redacted]) were most unhappy as a result of their meeting with State Department earlier in the day. He said [redacted] called the White House from his office and ostensibly made an appointment with Pierre Salinger complaining about the State Department's attitude with respect to Cuba. He said his meeting with the group was satisfactory and they appeared to welcome the opportunity of talking with an Agency representative. [redacted] merely told the group that he would see that their proposal was passed on to appropriate people here.

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked us if we could provide the Subcommittee with [redacted] which has its headquarters in Geneva. I advised Sourwine I would check on this and be in touch with him.

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Talked with Jim Hyde's office (BOB) concerning the letter we had received from Representative Jack Westland regarding a report from the Agency on H. R. 1845, Westland's proposal for a Freedom Academy. (HCUA requested a report from us on this bill last year and our reply has been in suspense pending BOB's approval of our proposed report on a similar Senate bill, S. 822) Hyde's office indicated that this matter still has not been resolved with the White House and Agency reports submitted to BOB still have not been cleared. Mr. Hyde is to call us back to provide guidance.

25X1

[redacted] Delivered to Mr. James J. Gehrig, in the office of Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.), a blind memorandum dated 15 January and entitled Estimates of Soviet Heavy Bomber and Tanker Strength Since 1956. A document receipt was obtained.

25X1

[redacted] Delivered to Miss Maureen Dantsic, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, 50 copies of Mr. McCone's biographic outline for the Committee's use.